Events for Adults

Wed, Jan. 8, 6:00-7:00, Selover Shelfies: Book Club For Adults

This book club is for adults who love reading and want to connect with other adults who do too! Read what you like and share with others so we all get exposed to new books, authors, and genres. Refreshments will be served.

Thurs, Jan. 9, 6:00-7:30, Craft Class and Cooking with Laurie

Join us in January for a combined craft and cooking class! Join Laurie McLain as she guides you through making a pair of simple wall pictures. After that, learn how to make a giant cookie for one, for when you don't want to make a whole batch of cookies. Ages 13+. Registration is required through our event calendar at seloverlibrary.org.

Wed, Jan. 22, 6:00-7:00, Officially Speaking

Join us for an informal roundtable discussion with Michael Nelson, Morrow County Emergency Management Agency (EMA) Director. Get to know the people who serve our community! Light refreshments will be served.

Wed, Jan. 29, 6:00-7:30, Bingo for Books

Join us for bingo fun and win books for prizes! Light refreshments will be served.

Check out free tickets to the movies with your library card!
